CONSECRATION OF THE BUILDING

Michael Dear friends, rejoice that God so moved the hearts of people that this house has been built for praise and prayer. Let us now consecrate it for service and celebrate its holy use.

Reader 1 O eternal God, mighty in power and of incomprehensible majesty, whom the heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands, you have promised your special presence whenever two or three are assembled in your name to offer praise and prayer.

Michael By the power of your Holy Spirit consecrate this house of your worship. Bless us and sanctify what we do here, That this place may be holy for us and a house of prayer for all people.

Reader 2 Guide and empower in this place by the same Spirit, the proclamation of your Word and the celebration of your Sacraments, the pouring out of prayer and the singing of your praise, professions of faith and testimonies to your grace, the joining of men and women in marriage and the celebration of death and resurrection.

Michael Save us from that failure of vision which would confine our worship within these walls, but send us out from here to be your servants in the world, sharing the blessings of Christ with the world he came to redeem.

Kory Now, O God, sanctify this place, for everything in heaven and on earth is yours. Yours, Lord, is the dominion, and you are exalted as head above all.

Some people were angry that Jesus healed on the Sabbath. But many rejoiced and praised God.
